

- Connect to Metamask
- Take user input for transaction
- Allow user to sign transaction message

4. First relayer responds and call contract

Relayer

- Relayer calls the contract function and pays the gas fee on users' behalf
- Compensated through smart contract in token that user specified

Smart Contract

- Smart contract for transferring token on senders' behalf
- Requires senders' signature to permit the transfer, which is included in relayer's contract function call
- Transfer token to recipient and relayer their respective amount specified by sender.